1970 Crescent Dedication

The dedication of the yearbook is an award given to a deserving person or group by the Senior Class.

To us, it represents their leadership, assistance, interest, and devotion that they have given to the Senior Class as a whole.

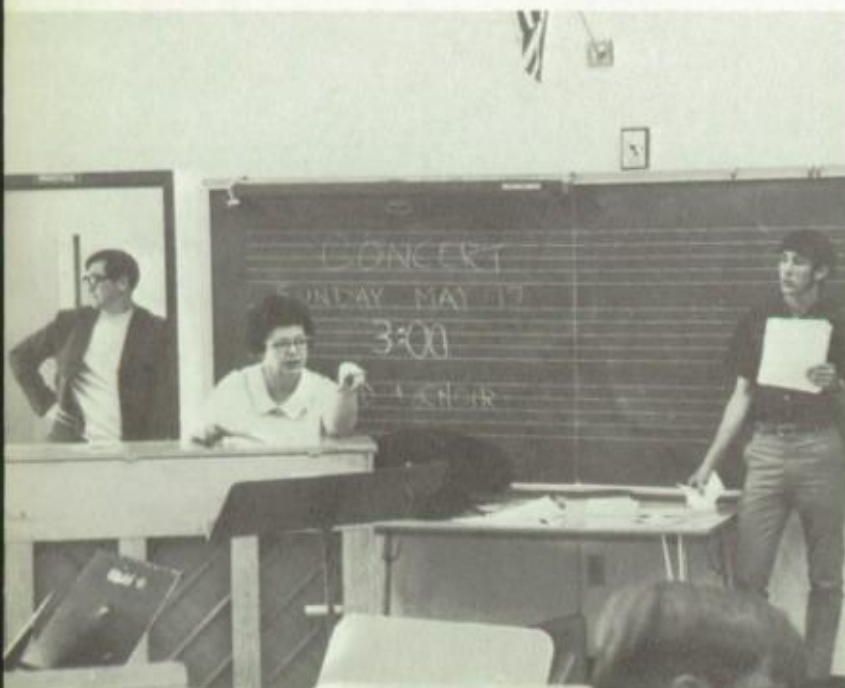

We, the Senior Class of 1970, dedicate the 1970 CRESCENT to Mrs. Vivian May.

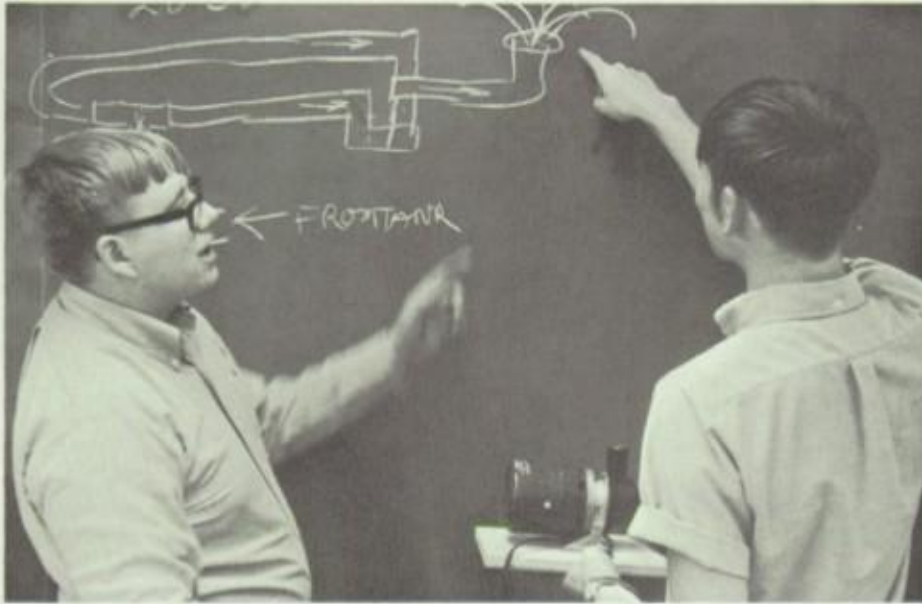

Mrs. Vivian May, the 1970 CRESCENT dedicatee, graduated from Olivet College in Illinois and has taken additional training at Ashland College.

She is married and has two sons. They reside on Rt. 545.

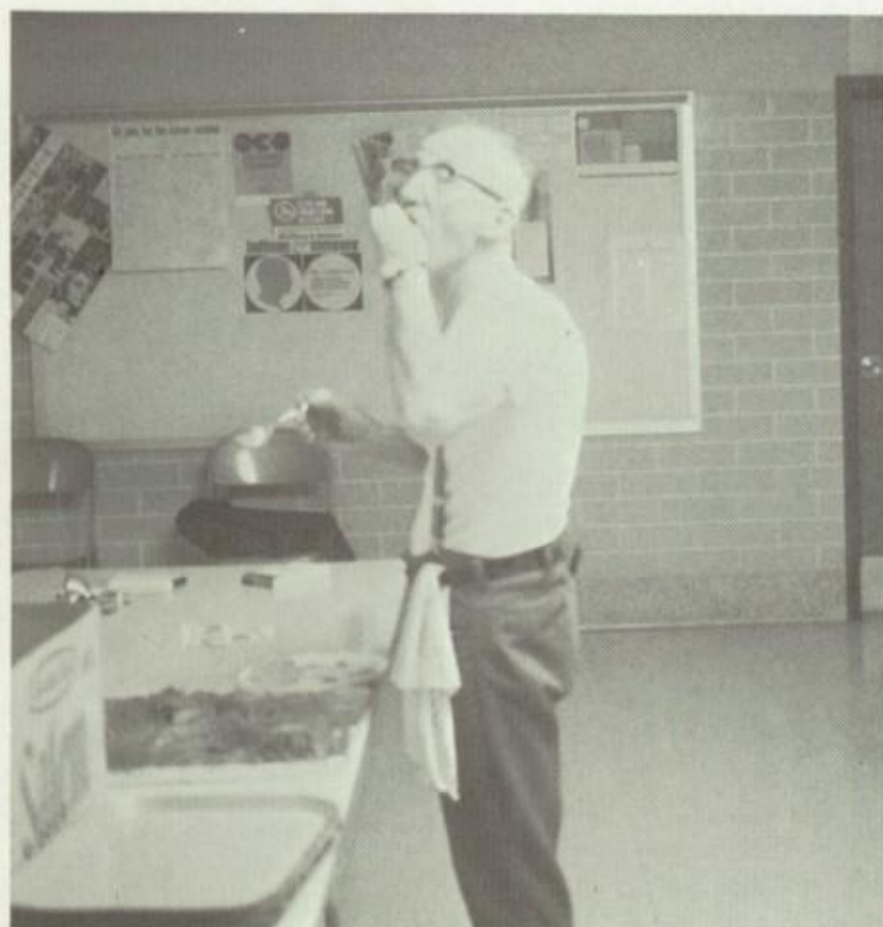

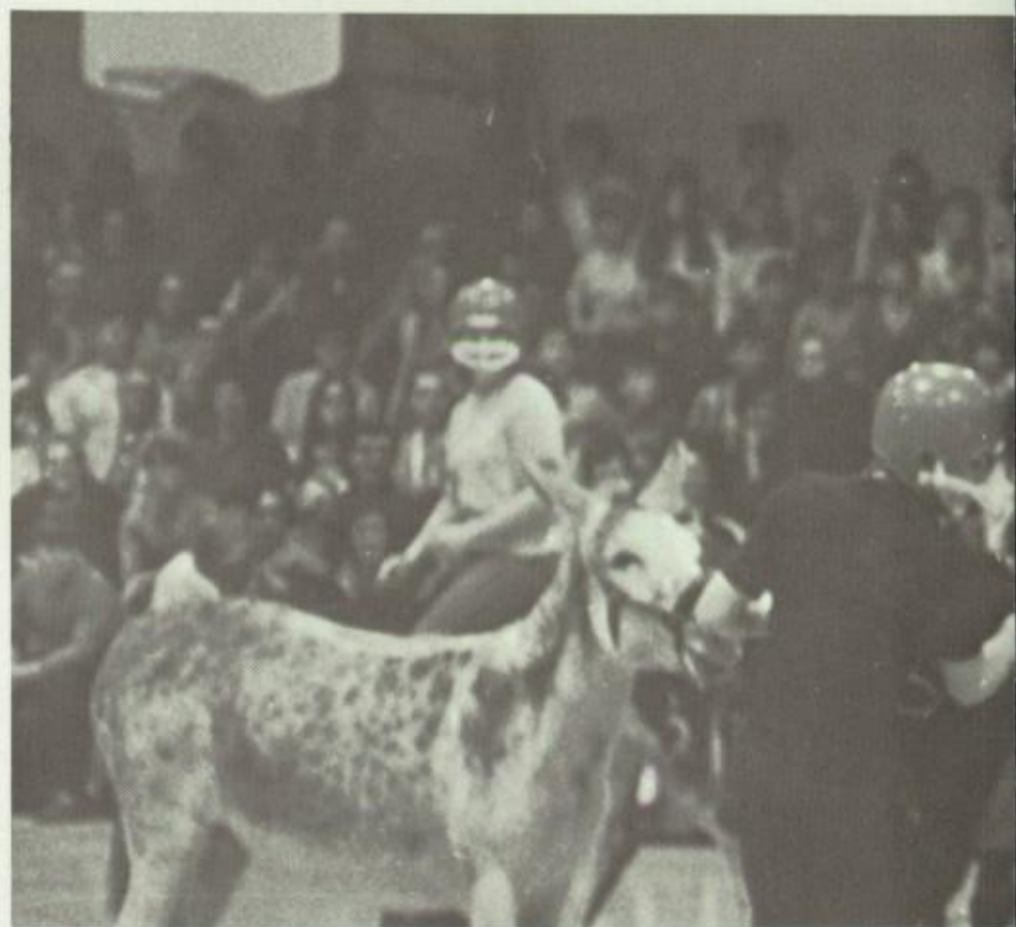

Mrs. May teaches Sophomore and Junior English. She has been our Class Advisor for the past three years, and was active in planning the variety show during our Sophomore year, the Junior class play, magazine sale, and Junior-Senior prom last year, and helped to make our senior year most successful by her assistance in our plans for graduation and the senior class trip. We are grateful to her for all of her assistance.

For "Vote 19"

Government class became campaign headquarters for a nine-weeks period. A committee was formed to put the campaign on the road and "21 is 2 late-Vote 19" became our slogan. To obtain money for this project, we had a bake sale during a home football game. This money was then used for campaign materials such as balloons, posters, bumper stickers, and other literature. To round out the campaign we took off half a day of school and distributed "Vote 19" pamphlets throughout the county urging everyone to support the issue.

And Announcements Indicate

Graduation Is Near

The Senior class had lots of important business to take care of before their finale. Getting underway for Graduation they ordered caps and gowns which were in the class colors of gold and brown. Ordering announcements was also part of the preparation which meant they were ready for May 31. The Senior class was unique in its selections. The yellow rose bud was the class flower and the motto was "Yesterday is gone, Tomorrow may never come, Today is ours so seize it." Seniors selected YOU'LL NEVER WALK ALONE as class song.

Seniors Deserve A Big "Salute!!!"

The Seniors of 1970 got a big "Salute!!!" for their examples of good sportsmanship, desire, pride, success, and gratitude for their school and fellow classmates. An extra BIG SALUTE went out to Joe Grundy, who was unable to attend Graduation after an automobile accident and a five-month stay in the hospital. Bob Erbacher, Alan Cline, and Lanny Young, also in the same accident, were able to return to finish the school year.

Diana Greer was our Senior Halloween Queen and our J.A.C. Wrestling Queen. Laurie White represented the Seniors and Crestview as the 1970 attendant at the J.A.C. Track Meet, where Crestview finished fourth.

Tim Simmering and Roy Roberts barely made the CRESCENT, because they were camera shy. Marty Allen wasn't shy as he started his climb into the future.

Arsenic And

This play is the story about the elderly Brewster sisters who believed that it was their duty to poison people who were old and all alone in the world. Why they thought what they were doing was a mercy. Everything goes along fine until Mortimer Brewster, their nephew, happens to find out what the aunts were doing. More excitement is added when another nephew and his "doctor" friend come to live at the Brewster home uninvited.

Graduation — Nineteen Hundred Seventy

"Unforgettable Moments" Of Graduation

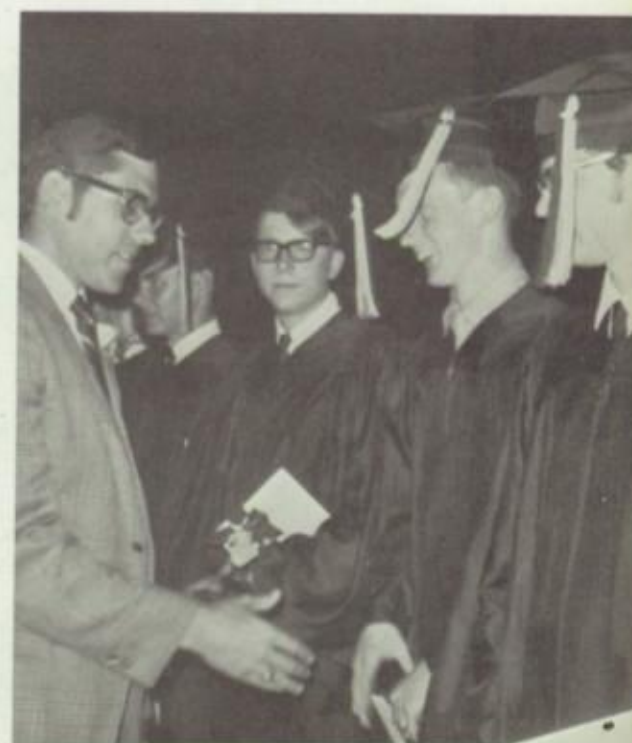

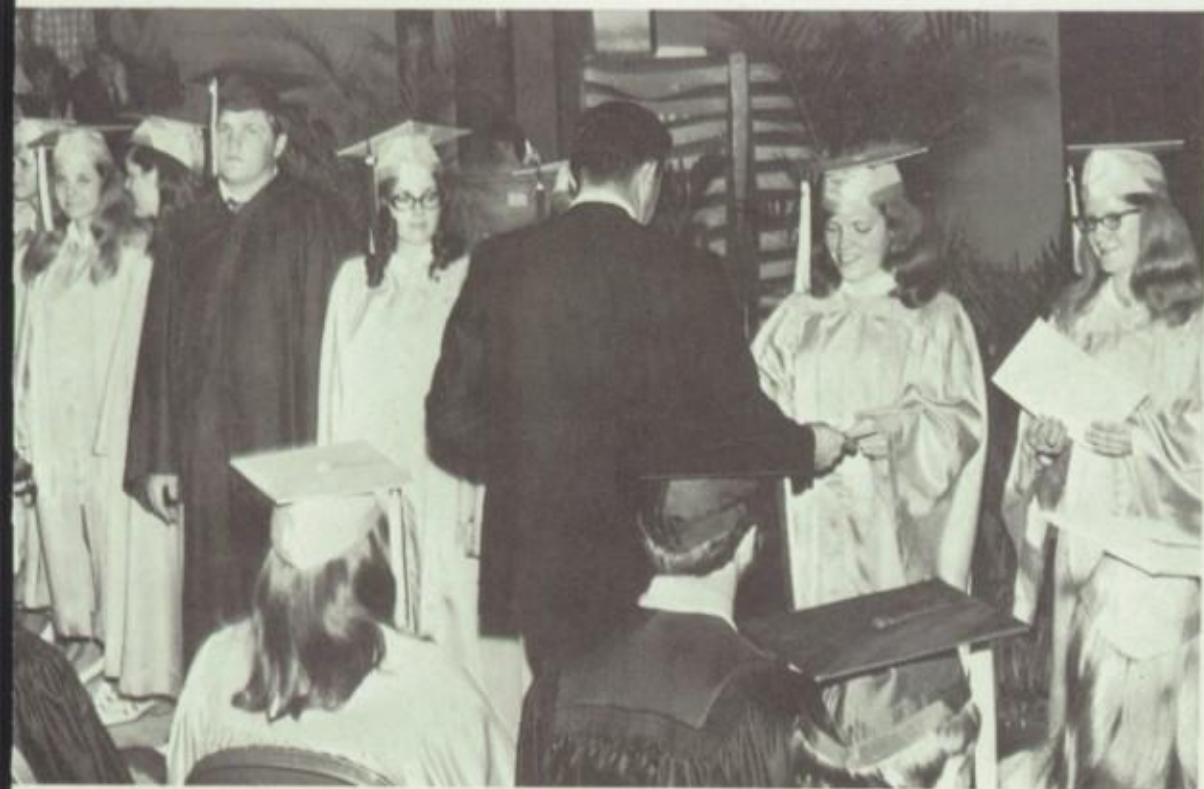

"When you walk through a storm
Hold your head up high,
And don't be afraid of the dark.
At the end of the storm is a golden sky,
And the sweet silver song of a lark.

Walk on through the wind,
Walk on through the rain,
Tho' your dreams be tossed and blown.

Walk on, walk on, with hope in your heart
And you'll never walk alone,
You'll never walk alone."

Pioneer Joint Vocational School

The concept of vocational education is being widely received in the state of Ohio as well as the nation. The primary purpose of Pioneer Joint Vocational School is to prepare non-college students for entry as advanced learners into Agriculture, Industrial Service, and Technical occupations.

Entry and placement into the various programs at Pioneer is determined on the basis of the applicant's ability, attitude, achievement, interest and physical condition. Because of the nature of some of the areas, helpful preparatory courses must be taken at the home school. Students should start planning for Pioneer as early as the eighth grade.

Although a student spends the entire day at Pioneer, he still enjoys the same privileges as those students attending Crestview. When a graduating student completes his senior year at Pioneer, he will receive a diploma from his home school.

Those Crestview students graduating from Pioneer in 1970 are; Roy Boggs, Jerry Greene, Terry Greene, Frank Hornyak, Walter Johnson, Ken Kruso, Ken McFarland, Dave Osborne, Dave Pittinger, Bob Plew, Glenn Sturgill, Mary Allen, Elaine Bocka, Debbie Cronin, Cathy Fulton, Deanne Kissel, Cheryl Pry, Janet Staker and Pam Stafford.

What does a team have after it goes 0-9? Materialistically, we may not have accomplished very much, but we feel that we have gained a great deal by our desire, week after week, to come back in attitude and effort.

During the year we discussed a phrase quite appropriate, "We will prepare and when our chance comes, we will be ready." We consider this not only in football, but life. Each week we prepared and though our chance did not come, we feel that it did lead to preparation of life after graduation.

This team gave 110% effort 100% of the time and the coaching staff can only say "Thank you" to a great bunch of young men who made us feel a great sense of accomplishment in helping to develop their personality, attitudes and values.

The team went undefeated in dual competition, placed 2nd in the J. A. C. meet, won the District meet at Findlay College, and finished 3rd in the State meet at Columbus.

Finishing 3rd in the State meet was the best any Crestview team has placed in any sport.

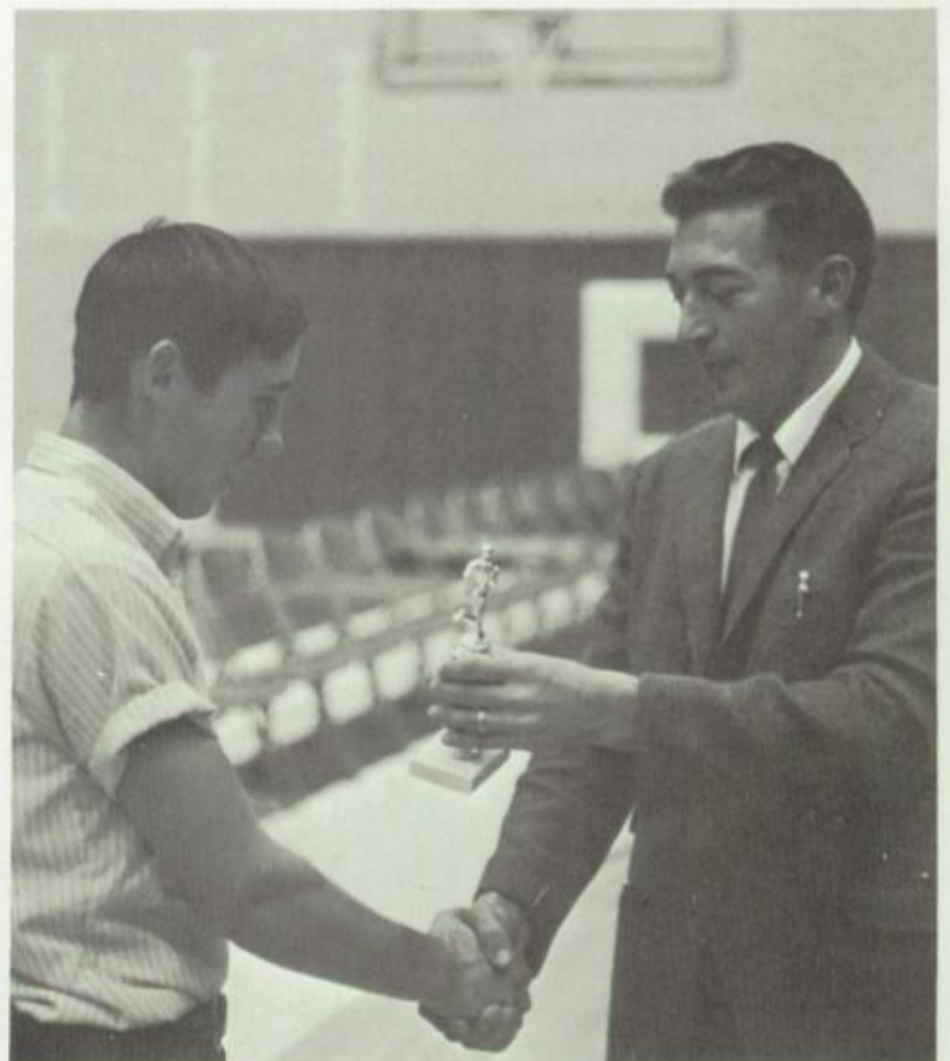

The members of the team we are proud of this accomplishment and hope that in the near future some Crestview team will do even better and WIN the State meet.

In the third year of wrestling, we were very successful in reaching our goals.

The team was 11-3 in dual meets. We had two undefeated wrestlers and were second to Lexington in the conference meet. Steve Oswalt, freshman, Mike Lemaster, sophomore, Ron Stallard, junior and Rick Greenawalt, senior finished in the sectionals and went on to wrestle in the district at Toledo.

Ron Stallard was third in the district, which gave him the right to go to State. Ron was Crestview's first wrestler to go to the State in only three years of wrestling at Crestview.

We ended the season with 21 wrestlers--five of the first 12 wrestlers on the varsity were freshmen. The Cougars will lose three starting seniors which means that we will have a young team returning to take on the challenges of the mat next year.

The 1969-70 Varsity Basketball Squad was built from a group of 8 seniors and 3 juniors. Under the leadership of Co-captains Jim Mawhorr and Tom Oswalt, the squad showed good hustle and often spent extra hours shooting practice shots in the gym before school.

At 6'3", Charlie White led the team in scoring with a 10 point average from his pivot position. Forward Tom Huff led the team in rebounding and total "net points." Jim Mawhorr was the leading free throw shooter with a 72% accuracy, while Tom Oswalt led in assists and recoveries.

The Cougar Cagers finished the season with a 6-13 record, having a 5-9 record in the JAC. Though the team had difficulty in scoring consistently, its aggressive team defense ranked third in the JAC.

Charlie White was selected Honorable Mention All-JAC and Honorable Mention All Ashland-Area Times Gazette. Tom Huff earned a third-team berth on the All Ashland-Area Times Gazette Team.

Though having a rather slow start in April, and finding themselves only 3-5, the Cougars won eight straight games, including seven in the JAC. The predominantly Senior club was unexpectedly knocked off the tourney trail in Sectional play by Crestline.

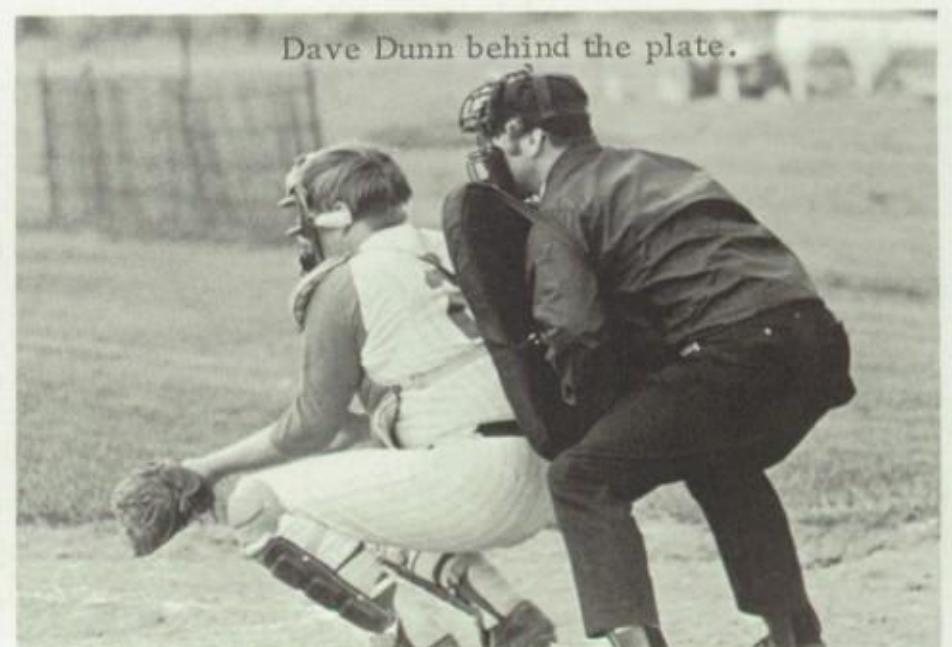

With the strong pitching arms of Larry See and Jeff Brown and the hitting of Tom Huff, the squad claimed the first place trophy in the JAC. Their final record was 11 wins and 3 losses in the JAC, 12-7 overall, with 4 losses being decided by single runs.

INDOOR TRACK

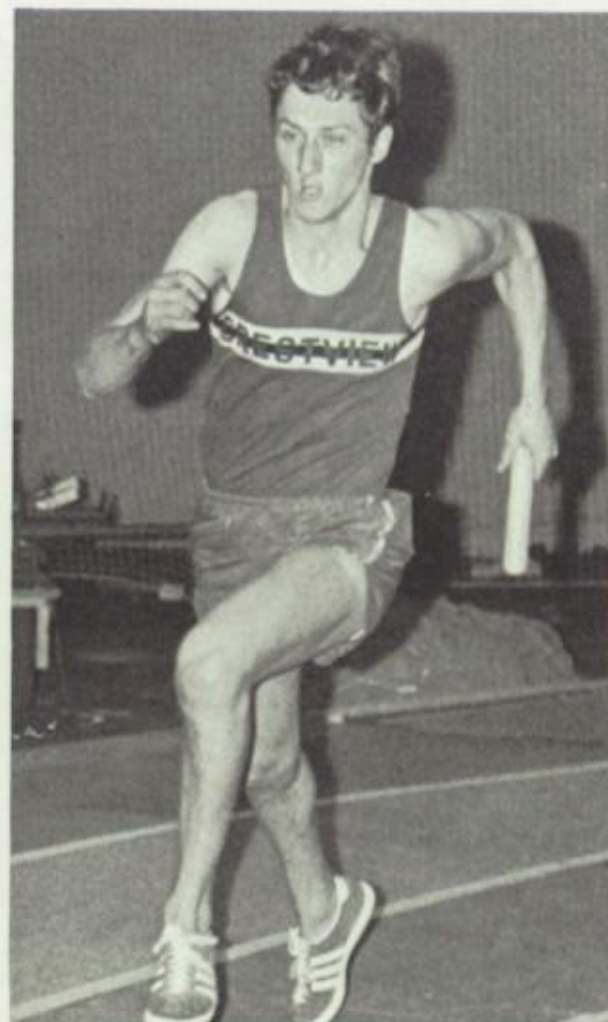

The Indoor Track team, an extension of outdoor track, gave athletes, who are not involved in other sports, a chance to practice and work out during the winter months.

There were 24 boys out this year to "get or keep in shape." Their activities included weight lifting, swimming, calisthenics, and isometrics.

We participated in an "All Comers Meet" at Ashland College on February 25 and March 11, and ran a dual meet with Brunswick on March 25.

The final meet of the year was the Ashland Indoor Relays held at Ashland College on March 28. Crestview finished third as a team. Gary Bowman had a record breaking run of 5.6 in the 50-yard dash.

Weight-lifting important part of fitness program.

The largest track team in the school's history (35 members) survived a season of injuries and unusual events well enough to show a better than average season. The team placed 4th in 2 relays, the District meet (composed of 17 teams) and the Johnny Appleseed Conference Meet. Its dual meet record was 3 wins and 4 losses.

The setting of 5 school records may stand out as the main accomplishment. Roger Eichelberger set a new 2 mile run record of 9 minutes, 59.9 seconds, Jim Mawhorr set a new standard in the pole vault with a vault of 12' 3 3/4". Charles White put his name on 3 school plaques with a 14.8 second time in the 120 yd. high hurdles, 20.1 seconds in the 180 yd. low hurdles, and teamed up with Gil Friday, Rex Ramsay, and Chuck Clantz to set a new shuttle hurdle record of 64.5 seconds.

The graduation of six four-year lettermen will leave a large task for the underclassmen to fill their spikes.

The Art Club at Crestview provides a time and atmosphere for it's members to discover the various aspects of art and be a service to their school at the same time. It provides many services such as decorating at Christmas, supplying posters for various events, and assisting with the preparation of the Spring Festival of the Arts. It offers the student a chance to view area artists work by keeping them informed as to when and where different shows are being held and an occasional trip to a local gallery.

Gary Dickman and Rick Hazenzahl use roller and brush in paint application.

Recognition At Music Contests

Winter Band Concert
Practice makes perfect.

Crestview's Band had more success in more activities this year than ever before. The highlight of the pregame and halftime shows of our football games was the 1970 Crestview Cougar Marching Band directed by Mr. Dennis Wollam.

Three parades were involved in the marching activities; the Mansfield Labor Day Parade, the Mansfield Halloween Parade, and the Ashland Halloween and Homecoming Parade, in which the band placed second to New London in competition. Popular music played by the marching band attracted an audience at the Ashland County Fair.

Concert Band opened its season in public performance at the Winter Concert. Along with the annual Spring Concert, a concert at Union Junior High School was planned. Crestview's Concert Band attended the District 7 Band Contest for the first time coming away with a straight II rating.

The bands also conducted their annual candy sale.

The 1969-70 Crestview Majorettes had an enjoyable and very successful year, completing the third full year of twirling.

As soon as school ended last year (1968-69), the girls held two-hour practices once a week, all summer. This was done under the direction of Mrs. Penny Preis, a former Madison High School majorette.

The girls were fortunate in acquiring military uniforms, paid for by the Crestview Music Boosters. Two other half-time outfits were also added.

Vicki Eberts (Lexington game) and Debbie Ott (Homecoming Game) performed solos at football games.

Majorettes: B. Harmon, V. Eberts, D. Ott, J. Ramsay.

Choir Members Have

The choir members were kept busy throughout the year preparing for their performances.

On December 14, the choir presented the Christmas Choral Program. January found a number of the choir members participating in the Ohio Wesleyan University Music Festival. The new year of 1970 also found the choir busily practicing for the District Choral Contest at Lexington High School. In early April, our choir represented Crestview at the All-County Choral Festival held at Madison High School.

As the school year drew to a close, the choir presented its last concert on May 17. They also sang for the graduation services for the 1970 class.

It was a busy year-lots of hard work but rewarding.

Linda Young, a senior and an alto in the Crestview Choir, was accepted as a member of the Ohio Select Youth Choir for 1969--1970. Linda sang with the All-Ohio Youth Choir at the Ohio State Fair and at Neil Armstrong Day in Wapakoneta.

The choir under the direction of Glenville Thomas rehearses one weekend a month in Columbus and will present about 20 concerts during the year in Ohio.

The select choir will also be going on a European tour from July 5-27 and will present concerts in England, Wales, Denmark, Sweden, France, Italy, Switzerland and Portugal.

1970 Drama Club Acts Up

This year was an organizational year for the Crestview Drama Club. We spent most of the year preparing a constitution, planning a fund-raising project, and discussing future activities.

The Drama Club helped to produce the Senior Class Play, "Arsenic and Old Lace."

A membership drive was planned for the end of the year.

Other future plans for the Drama Club include a new little theater, producing our own plays, and the introduction of a chapter of the National Thespian Society.

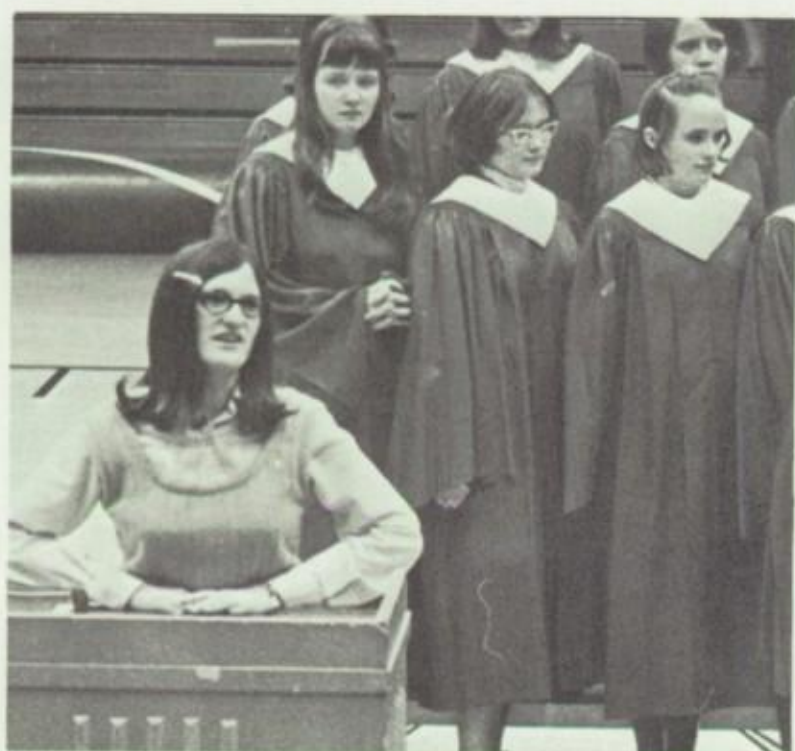

Drama Club members make up actors for Senior production of "Arsenic and Old Lace".

The Crestview Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America was very active during 1969--1970.

The FHA helped with the Homecoming festivities by making and selling mum corsages. Their main community project for the year was baking birthday cakes for all of the residents of the Richland County Home.

Some of the outstanding meetings were "Christmas Customs Around the World" and Daddy Date Night. They sponsored a Freshmen Orientation-Activity Day in February. In March, FHAers attended the Cleveland Home and Flower Show and the juniors and seniors visited Frank Lloyd Wright's "Falling Water" home near Ohiopyle, Pennsylvania.

In April, FHAers celebrated National FHA week and climaxed the week with their annual banquet. This year's banquet was a Mother-Daughter Dessert, held on April 10.

A successful year was completed at the State Convention where ten members received their State Home-maker Degree. These members were Paula Van Scoder, Willa Lilly, Kathy Lemmel, Jane Ann Hergatt, Kena Bishop, Elsie Lambright, Cindy Haught, Debbie Bemiller, Laurie Sherrick and Pam Hartsel. The Crestview Chapter received the Award of Merit.

F.T.A. Serves Teachers And School

One highlight of the year for the Future Teachers' Organization was the Student Participation Day held early in May.

Under the guidance of Jackie Beaty, President, plans were formulated for the senior members of F.T.A. to take over classes for a day of actual teaching experience.

Other highlights included a talk by Mr. Huddle of Ashland College and a question-and-answer exchange with Roberto Castro of Peru.

Many of the senior members of F.T.A. had days of substitute teaching in the lower grade levels at Union and Savannah.

The club started the year with the election of officers. Becky Haught, President; Pat Kazebee, Vice President; Sue Wolf, Secretary; Nancy Lemmel, Treasurer; and Barb Webb, Reporter.

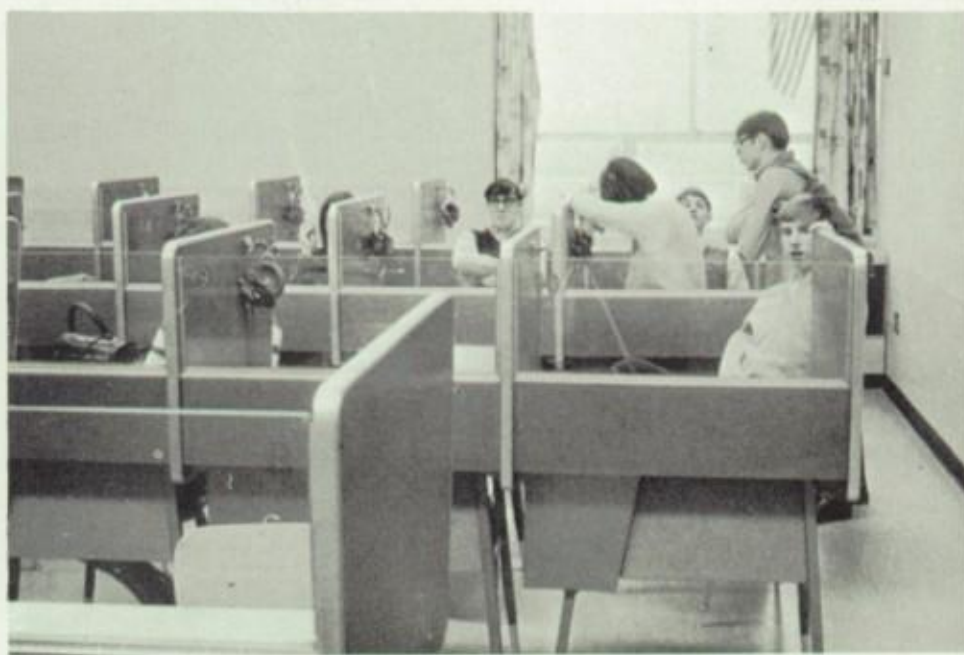

One of our money-making projects was a Christmas dance. The dress was semi-formal. Everyone seemed to enjoy the dancing and refreshments at our Foreign Christmas Dance.

The 1969-70 CRESCENT REVIEW staff had a busy year.

Under the direction of Marilee Clingan, editor, the monthly paper, usually issued just prior to a special school event or holiday, was sold during the lunch modules. Circulation was around 275 copies.

Most of the production work was done in the Office Practice Class, where the news from the reporters was assembled, typed on stencils, proofread, run on the duplicator, assembled and sold.

We also had a chance to attend a workshop for school newspapers at Pioneer Joint Vocational School for one day.

Mark Burns, Tom Oswalt and Ken Grogg operate the concession stand at 8th grade tournament.

The Varsity "C" of Crestview High School has done a very commendable job of promoting athletics and sportsmanship.

During the year, the club took a trip to see the Cleveland Browns play. We also operated a concession stand at the Varsity Basketball games and sponsored our own 8th grade Basketball Tournament. A trophy was bought to honor our cross country team for finishing 3rd in the State and money was donated to the football and track teams to help pay for equipment.

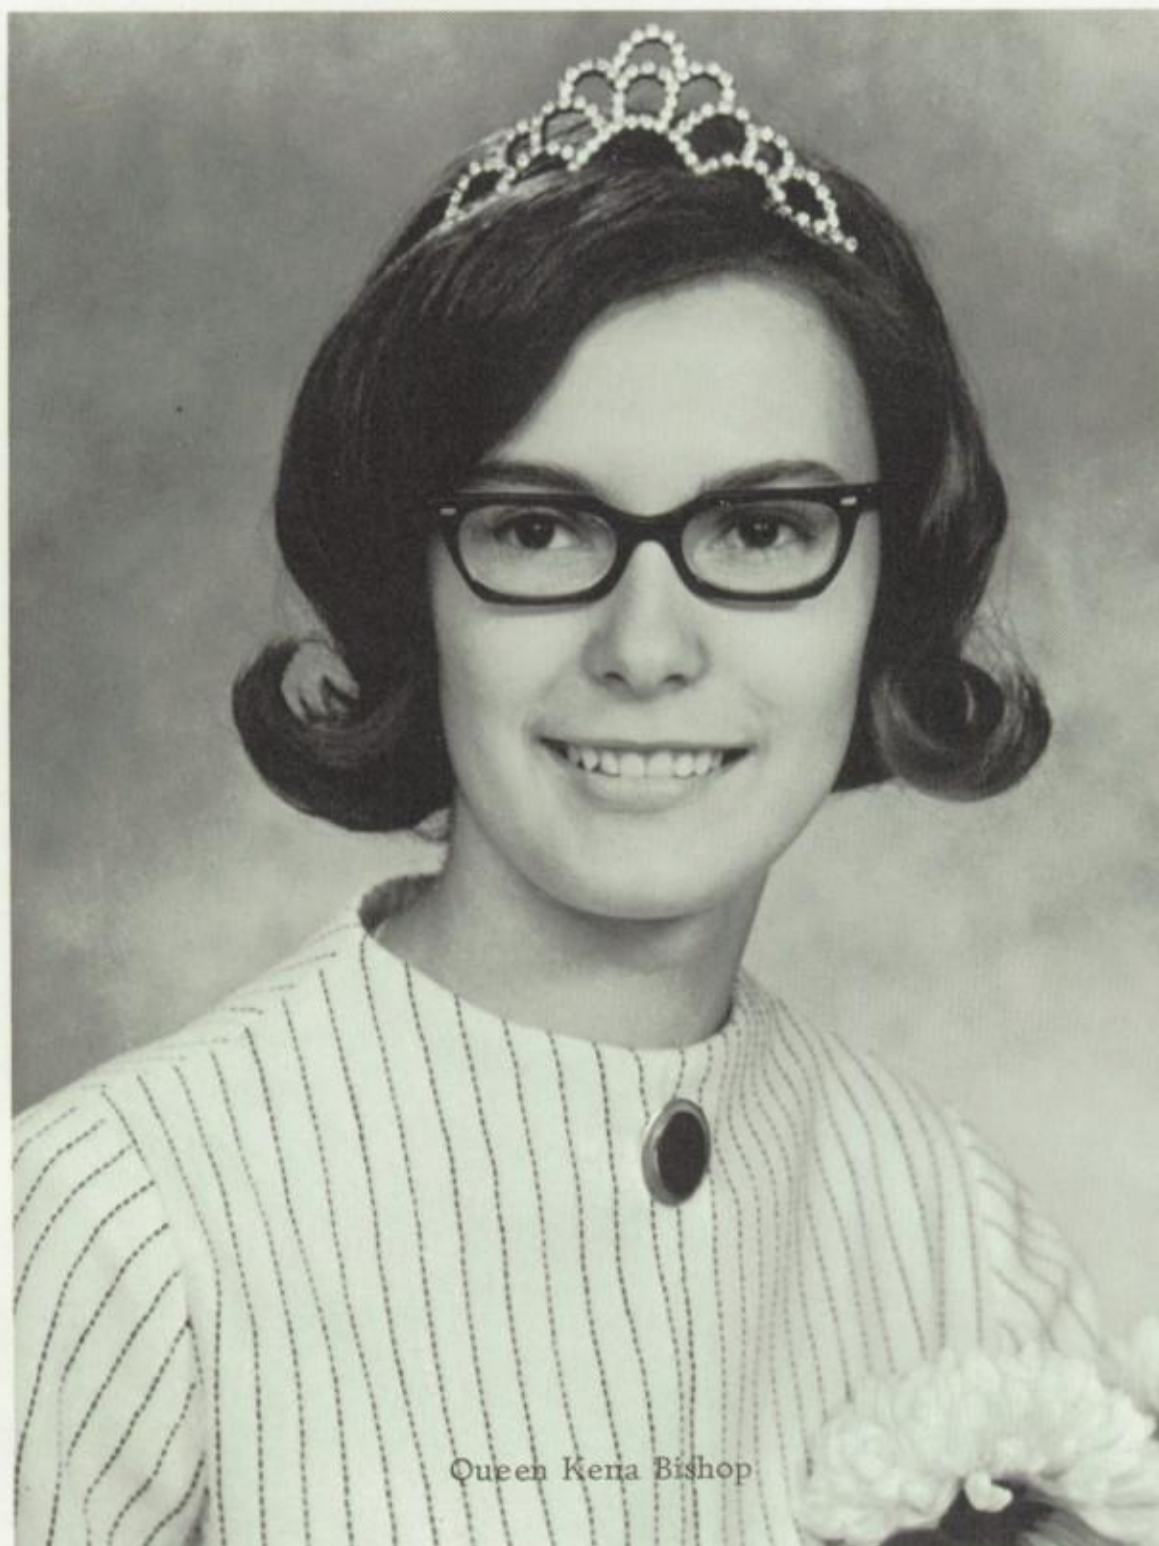

Perhaps the most outstanding event was the donation of money to Dan Pashkewick, a Lorain Admiral King football player, who was seriously hurt in football practice and is only able to communicate with his fingers.

Senior Varsity "C" members, J. Brown, T. Kemp, G. Bowman, M. Burns, and R. Eichelberger take time out to rest on the "snow" fence prior to a club meeting.

"Twelve Angry Men"

"Twelve Angry Men"

Junior girls are busy applying make-up on cast members.

Dan Magers finds out that make-up can be messy.

Presented By Juniors

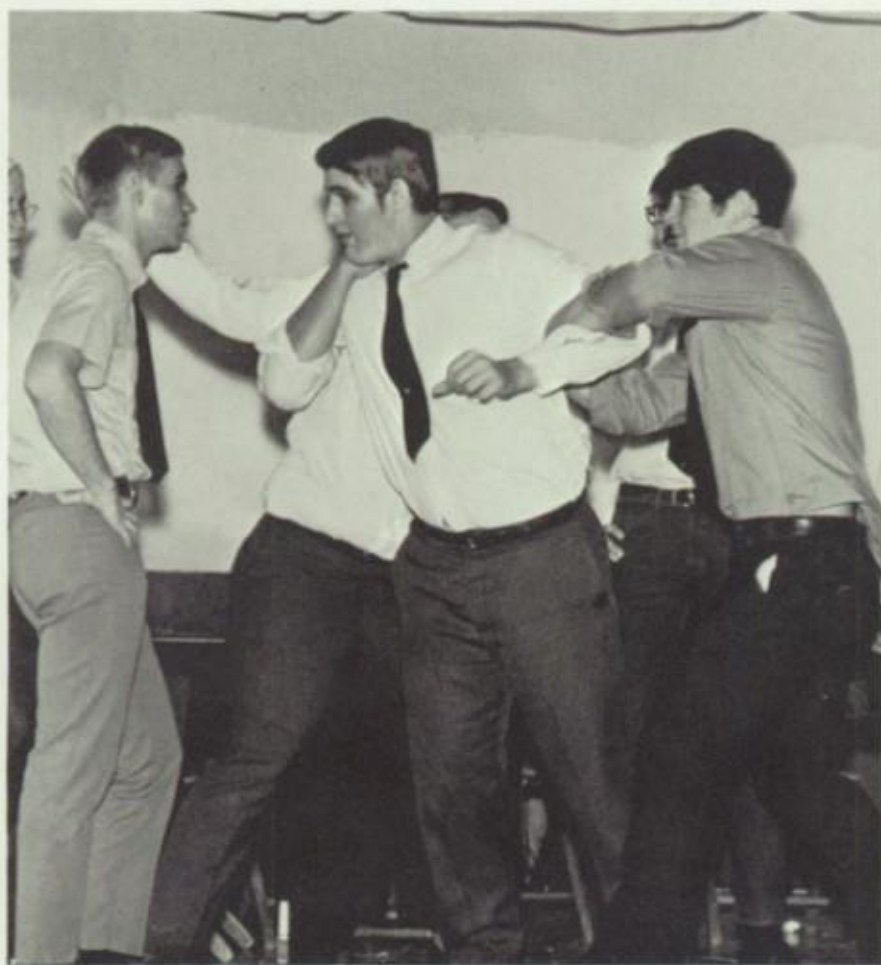

The play "Twelve Angry Men" is a great social commentary of today. It deals with two important aspects of our democracy, that a man is "innocent until proven guilty," and that that man must be found guilty, unanimously, "beyond a reasonable doubt." The outcome of American justice is sometimes very shocking. In the play, twelve angry men had to decide whether a boy should live or die. Their reasons were varied and incredible. Those jurors were everyone of us. Mr. and Mrs. America. Everyone of us was on that stage.

"Gone with the Wind," was the theme of the 1970 Junior-Senior Prom. The decorations highlighted the mood. There was a showboat, a surrey, a fountain and colonial home in the cafeteria, and halls decorated with ivy and magnolia blossoms.

The picture room was a replica of a southern garden. A buffet dinner of Mint Juleps, Southern Fried Chicken, Cotton Balls, Black-eyed Peas, Carolina Moon Salad, Short'nin' Bread, Magnolia Buds, Dixie Delight, Planters Punch, and Watermelon Seeds was served in an old fashioned Southern dining room.

The evening was highlighted by the crowning of the Prom Royalty, Queen Diana Greer and King Rex Yarger, Princess Willa Lilly and Prince Steve Oswalt.

The Grand March was held at the end of the evening's dancing to the music of Dave Rose and his band. The couples' names were announced as they left the cafeteria and proceeded across a bridge leading to the gym for the showing of "The Russians are Coming, The Russians are Coming."

Following the movie, everyone hurried home to exchange their formal attire for more casual wear, and then rushed to King Lanes in Ashland where the Post Prom was held from 2:00 to 5:00. Juniors, Seniors, guests, and chaperones alike enjoyed bowling, dancing to "The Oakland Strength" and playing pool.

Ray Rogers, Sandy Shambaugh, Paul Cunningham, Jane Ann Hergatt, and Karen Murphy and escort enjoy the fountain in the "Gone with the Wind" setting.

FACULTY

Board Of Education And School

Crestview Local School Board--Harold E. Daup--Local Superintendent, Ed Miller, Kenneth Burns, Dale Mawhorr--President, Mrs. Phyllis McPhern, Alton Bardeen, Henry Pittinger--Clerk.

A national poll by Gallup International indicates that education is a job for parents as well as teachers; that reading to a child as early as the age of one gives him a statistically significant "head start"; and that parental attitude toward education, toward a youngster's school, and toward his teachers does make a difference in the child's own attitude toward learning.

It is worth reminding mothers, fathers, school board members, voters, state and federal officials, and ourselves that dollars alone will not bring about equality of educational opportunity. It is worth stressing that teachers cannot remedy all the omissions of parents, and that a substantial amount of learning--or not learning--has been completed before a child enters a classroom for the first time. It is worth recognizing, in conclusion, that educational parity begins at home.

Administration Work Together For Progress

David S. McVicker -- Principal

Every year an attempt is made to improve the educational program of the Crestview School District. This is particularly true of the high school. Just one year ago, the high school was accepted into the North Central Accrediting Association and this has resulted in this year's teaching staff developing a course of study for every subject being offered. This has been no small task and I commend the staff for their effort and believe this to be a firm foundation to greater improvement.

There has been a Student Committee reviewing the co-curricular program offered at this high school, and they are to be commended for their contributions. Suggestions made by this committee will result in better organized, meaningful and active organizations than before.

Both of the preceding are given mainly to indicate that improvement in schools, communities, and nations can be made faster, more efficient, and more effective if cooperative planning and working conditions are used.

I am sure greater strides could be made in improving the school environment if EVERYONE would share their thoughts, time and effort, and this is what is being encouraged here at Crestview High School.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Editor and staff review 1970's efforts.

The 1970 Crescent has been made possible only by the determination and hard work of many persons.

I would like to thank this year's staff: Seniors--Jeff Brown, Diana Budd, Marilee Clingan, Nancy Fulk, Mike Ringler, Rex Yarger; Juniors--Kena Bishop, Kenny Funk, Carol Greenawalt, Steve Oswalt; Sophomores--Donna Fulk, Bev Oswalt, Stewart Sherrick; Freshmen--Neil Hergatt and Mary Ellen Hult, Smucker's House of Portraits, Mr. Earl Parks, representative of American Yearbook Company, and especially to Mrs. Jacobs, the staff advisor.

Their efforts have been combined and the result is the best yearbook ever!

Jackie Beaty, Editor
